PRODUCT INTRODUCTION

The CUBE Environmental Sensor levels the temperature, humidity and illumination in your home or office. The sensor becomes a powerful tool to trigger other devices to perform actions based on settings when it is paired with other LifeSmart products. Is the air too dry? The humidifier is on. Is your room too hot? The air conditioner is on. The light can be turned on automatically when there is no enough light. Your home environment is always monitored properly with LifeSmart CUBE Environmental Sensor. With the help of LifeSmart Cloud services and other amazing technologies, every single home will become a smart home, every single office will become a smart office. LifeSmart, Simply Brilliant.
